

PARTICIPANT RIGHTS FOR COMMUNITY-BASED RESEARCH

In Canada, participants in most Community-Based Research should have a right to...

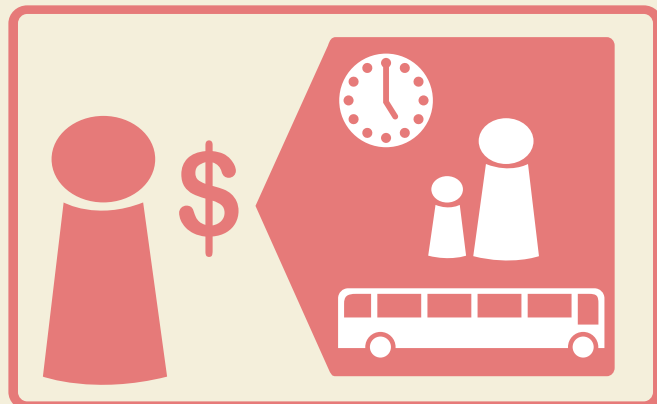

Review all the relevant information about the study and voluntarily agree to participate

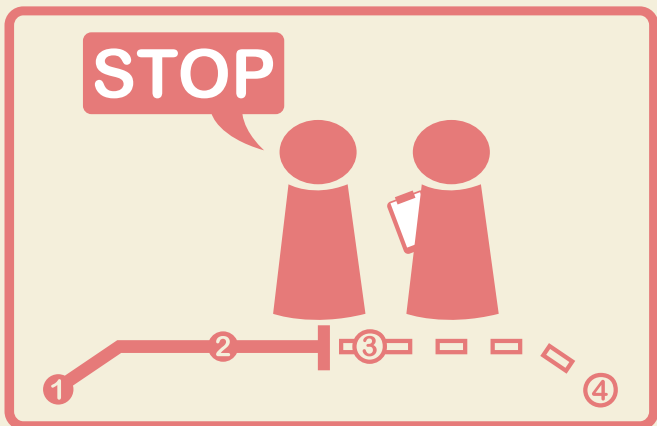

Understand the purpose of the research and what you will be asked to do

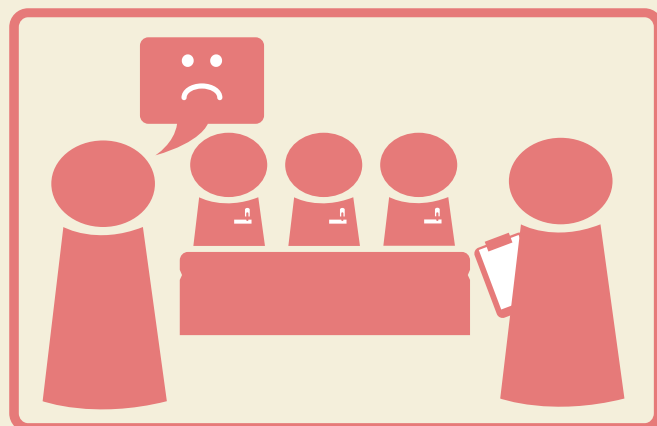

Know how your information will be stored and who has access to it

Receive compensation for participation and in some cases be reimbursed for travel or childcare

Leave the study without losing access to services or other benefits

Contact the principal investigator and ethics board with any concerns or complaints
